JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH—A STATESMAN'S OPPORTUNITY.

One would have supposed that if President Grant had possessed the mind and the resources of a statesman, he would have found ample opportunity, when called on the other day at the Boston Peace Jubilee for a speech, to say something else than what he did say, which runs in this wise:

"It affords me great pleasure to visit the capital of the State which has done so much for my support, and for the support of the Union in time of the great rebellion; a State whose principles did so much to give me whatever political position I have attained; and a State where I have received such a hearty welcome in other days."

This so-called Peace Jubilee is presumed to have been given in celebration of what is called the return of peace. Without stopping to inquire what sort of peace it is we have, and over which this Boston gathering met to rejoice, surely the occasion was one which presented to President Grant an opportunity—which no public man of any note could well have disregarded—to express his opinions on the foremost topics of the day—our relations with England, our relations with Cuba, and other foreign matters—the currency, taxation, the revenues, and especially on the condition and prospects of the lately rebellious Southern States as a part of the American Union, in the cessation of whose hostilities to the Federal Government consisted that peace which the assemblage before him were celebrating. But President Grant had not a word to say on any of these or kindred subjects. He contented himself with referring in the most execrable possible taste, with many "I"s, and "me"s and "me"s, to what he chose to think, if he was collected enough to think anything, Massachusetts "had done" for "his support," which could only have been in worse taste by expressing also what had been likewise done through him and his disgraceful nepotism for his family and kindred. Had a statesman stood in his place he would have made such an exposition of public affairs, in a concise and pointed way, as would have been instructive to the country, and in so doing have filled the idea which the people have of a Chief Magistrate, who is supposed to be familiar with the principles, the workings, the condition of a government of which he is the chosen head and the chief administrator. Had any public man occupied his position who had opinions at all pertinent to this occasion and worthy of his position, he would certainly have expressed them. President Grant had participated conspicuously in the struggle which brought rebellion to a close, and had he nothing to say about peace!—nothing to say about the might and power, the resources, the valor which overcame so formidable a combination against the Union!—nothing to say, as the result of his reflections upon what had been accomplished, that would bear upon our destiny in the future!—no sincere and patriotic hope and confidence to express that two sections of our common country, having tested their strength, and each given the other cause for pride in the kinship that existed between them, because of the manhood and bravery they respectively displayed, might henceforth live together in kindly relations and reciprocal good will?—no recommendations, no appeals to make to the better feelings of the country to exercise, one section toward the other, charity, moderation, forbearance, and to eradicate animosity, resentment, mutual criminations, and all bitter and humiliating memories? To allow all considerations, all suggestions like these to pass by without a world, and to dwindle down in thought and speech to such utterances as those in which President Grant indulged, was not to have been expected from a President of the United States, nor can his remarks on this noted occasion, we think, be considered worthy of a statesman; which a President is presumed to be.

Altogether, we regret that we cannot congratulate the country upon the address with which President Grant has favored it. Perhaps, however, we ought to be thankful for what he has given us, nor look the gift horse in the mouth.—Nat. Intelligencer.

OUR FIRST LOVE.

The Frenchman who said that we always return to our first loves, saidone of the true things of human nature; and every mature mind knows its truth. We do return to our old loves, and no after affection ever destroys their place in our hearts. There are abundant reasons for this going back upon life—at least in thought and desire, if not in actual renewal. In youth, when our sensations were all new, and when the mere fact of living was in itself a joy, everything was painted in rose colors; everything was perfect, and each emotion in its novelty was a veritable revelation of the divine. We had not then become blunted by satiety, chilled or corrected by experience. We firmly believed that, what we felt, no one else had ever felt before, or would ever feel again with anything like our intensity; we firmly believed that all other people's emotions were tame and colorless beside our own. For youth is in itself a perpetual recreation of the primeval Adam, and each man lives for a time in a paradise of his own making, which no brother has ever shared. We and our special Eve dwell in it alone for just as long a time as the fervor and experience of our first passion last. The pity is that it lasts so short a time, and that we awake, while yet so young, to the consciousness that all to exquisite delight is only delusion, and that "the mind sees what it brings" in love as well as in other things. The love of a boy or girl is unique. It is never repeated in kind, though it may be even surpassed in degree; for the love of the mature heart is more powerful than that of the youthful; but the freshness, the ecstatic sense of certainty, the sublime belief in itself and its own immortality, in its unchangeableness and future, characteristics of the first young love, have no echo even in the strength and fidelity of the mature.

A lady called at our dry good store yesterday, and after examining one or two articles, remembered that she wanted some cosmetic for her toilet, and turning to the proprietor of the store said, "Have you any Bloom of Youth?" The merchant over whose head more than fifty summers have passed, turned to one of his lady clerks and asked in a business way, "Have I any bloom of youth left?" The clerk looked up with a quiet smile, and answered, "I believe not, sir."

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!
The Largest Revenue to the States. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.
Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.
THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.
Being situated in the northwestern part of the State in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.
The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.
The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.
Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.
FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.
A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC
Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.
Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.
The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

residing the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "Seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "Select Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now at his "Oakland Farm" near Townsville, in this County.
This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor, Mr. Chas. H. K. Taylor, who paid $3,25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in Spring of Chicago bone Fertiliser and is now very promising
Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, JUNE 26, 1869.

ANTHONY HARE, CHICKEN STEPHENS AND SPECIAL COURT.

Our first visit to Rockingham was made on Tuesday last. We left the Piedmont Railroad at Reidsville, and took buggy with Col. Morehead, for Wentworth, the county seat of Rockingham. We chatted with every man we passed about the harvest, the crops, Ku Klux and the Leagues. Every man, black and white, condemned the policy of holding Court in harvest. A negro informed Col. Morehead that Stephens had called the Court. Among the white people, it was the universal opinion that Stephens and Anthony Hare, had been instrumental in getting it called. We did hear one man say he heard Judge Settle threaten the Ku Klux with a special Court, and it was his opinion that Judge Settle had a voice in getting up the Court.—On Monday there was no Court, because Tourgee, the Judge, was in Raleigh. On Tuesday there was no Court, because the Judge was in Greensboro'. On Wednesday, at half past ten, the Judge called Court.—We must take events as they come.

On Tuesday we occupied the Court room instead of the Judge. We endeavored, in a speech, to impress upon the farmer the importance of less tobacco and more sheep, bees, grass, clover and compost. Rockingham is as negligent of her sheep, bees and clover, as Alamance or Orange. Judging from what we saw, the dogs of the county outnumber the sheep. We did not see a single bee stand, and only one small flock of sheep, in which the black outnumbered the white. We did not see a sprig of clover, it was all tobacco, with here and there a little corn. The wheat was better than any crop for ten years past, and such is the report we hear from every county of the State. We talked to the colored people, telling them of the Indian saying, "White man first, Indian next, dog next and negro last." Now the saying has been reversed, and it is negro first, dog next, white man next and the Constitution last, the Indian being left out entirely. We told the negroes that the Governor, Judges, and men they had elected to high places, had no more use for them until another election, and they would not appear in their League meetings until the eve of another election, then they would hear promises, again, of "40 acres and a mule." We told them never to rejoice over the old Union and old Constitution, for so long as that lasted they had to be slaves. But for the war they would be slaves to day. The Yankees said their masters, the rebels, made the war. Grant it, what follows?—Your late masters made the war, the war set you free. Then you should rejoice over the war and thank and praise those who made it, and curse those who cried out for the Union which manacled you as slaves.

We talked about the Judges engaging in politics and, now, denying it and attempting to punish citizens, members of the Bar, for respectfully protesting against their doing so. We thought it smacked more of loyal despotism than any act ever perpetrated on this continent. We talked of the Penitentiary swindle, the bribery and corruption of the Legislature. We talked of the Ku Klux and Leagues, and admonished the people against both, as well as all secret political associations. We warned them against making distinctions among Radicals. Billy Henderson, now that he stood acquitted of stealing Darr's mule, was as much entitled to respectful consideration as any of their party. Stephens, of whom they all know, was now a Senator, lawyer and "honorable" Radical, notwithstanding he stood at this bar a self confessed chicken thief.

Stephens, it is said, had this Court called in the very high tide of harvest when every man should be at home reaping what he had sown. We concluded a long speech to as intelligent and attentive an audience as we ever addressed—after which we were introduced to the Scalases, and Readds, and Daltons, and Motleys, and Smiths, and Caldwells, and Thompsons, and Malcoms, and Swepsons, and Summersas, and Broadmaxes, and Galloways and Stones and Carters, without end or number.—They filled our pockets with money for the Sentinel, and we waited yet a third day for Tourgee, the Judge, to come and open Court. At half past 10 o'clock on Wednesday, the long-looked-for came in. We suggested to Bulla, the Solicitor, that Stephens be put upon the Bench, provided Tourgee did not come to hold the Court.

Bulla seemed ready to try before any body, rather than keep the people out of their harvest fields, but we did not press the matter, so Stephens was not put upon the Bench. We have never seen a whole people so indignant—because of this ill-timed Court.

CAUSE OF THE CALL OF THE COURT.

One white man who had quit his wife and children and taken up his abode with a woman of color, had been soundly whipped by the Ku Klux; Anthony Hose, (negro,) was soundly whipped by the Ku Klux. This is Anthony's history; he was whipped for stealing boots in Wentworth; he stole Mr. D's sheep, which was found in his "big chist" uncleaned and unskinned; he stole Bony Vaughn's butter, and Bony gave him nine and thirty at the spring house.

Anthony belonged to Mrs. Jane Hare, a widow lady who was very indulgent to her slaves. There were two beds in his old mistress's room and Anthony was known to steal one while the old lady was asleep upon the other. So her grandson informed us.

JAMES MALCOM, OF GUILFORD.

We saw this quiet old gentleman, who said Tourgee ought to be punished about this Court. We said Tourgee had nothing to do with calling the Court, it was Holden. Yes said Malcom, "Tourgee should be punished for not being here on Monday. Jurors and witnesses are punished for non attendance, and so should the Judge be." I left my home in Guilford Monday morning and walked fifteen miles. I left thirty five acres of good wheat ripe and ready for harvest. I left it all with my three sons, one eighteen and the other two small boys. I have been here this is the third day, waiting for the Judge. I never was in law before—not even before a magistrate. Near two years ago I caught Anthony Hare with a bag of corn on his shoulder, which came out of my crib. I did not wish to return him to Court but my neighbors insisted and I did so, he has continued his case every Court since the bill was found, and it is now for trial this Court. I live fifteen miles from him, yet he has sworn that I was one of the men who whipped him, and I am brought here out of my harvest field to answer for it. Mrs. Moore, one of my neighbors died, and I shall be able to prove that I sat up with the corps. I would not have gone fifty yards to whip old Anthony, much less fifteen miles, nor could I be persuaded to do such a thing."

Such was the story of an old man 52 years of age, who had never before been called before Court or Magistrate. Two as respectable men as there are in the State told us that Anthony was such a rogue no one would allow him to live on their land. Last winter, the Sheriff by legal process, put him out of Mr. ——'s house. Anthony and his family camped on the great road from Danville to Salisbury, sheltered by an old quilt thrown up as a tent.

The Bar on Monday agreed they would try no case on the civil docket. There were 79 cases on the State docket—35 for larceny, 18 for assault and battery and 24 of the 79 were presentments only. There was no capital case. No one in jail awaiting trial. Anthony Hare was one of the special cases which called for the Special Court.

It is true there were other cases and we shall give an account of them hereafterr.

Chicken Stephens had spent a week or so in Rockingham, hunting up Ku Klux, and said the Governor had commissioned him for five Counties.

The Judge charged the Grand Jury that the term had been called to put down lawlessness. "If the Grand Jury could not find evidence to present the guilty who, masked and disguised, do violence to the person of the citizen, then such acts of violence must be reciprocated by acts of violence. If the Grand Jury can't get hold of them for presentment the citizen must fall back upon his own rights."

We noted the Judge's words and called on a member of the bar to remember them.—Under the late law of the late corrupt Legislature, if the Judge will deny he gave such a charge and that we misrepresented his charge to the Grand Jury, he can put us in jail for sixty days, be being the Judge and the witness. In our next issue we will give other causes for calling the Court in harvest. It is proper that the attention of the public should be called to the doings of Holden, Chicken Stephens and Anthony Hare. No people or State can prosper where such men bear sway.

If it calls out Joe, Cebe, Pike, Menninger, Boxler, Farris and Jenkins again, these things shall be made public.

The people may bear patiently such outrages and abuses, but they shall not have the excuse that they were ignorant of them so long as we print a paper.

WHO SHALL DECIDE WHEN DOCTORS DISAGREE?

We learn that a misunderstanding has arisen between "our beloved Governor," and the Superintendent of Public Works, Colonel L. Hatris, Esq., in regard to official prerogative in appointing State proxies in the Stockholders' meetings of our Rail roads; the Governor claiming that the appointment of proxies and directors on the part of the State belongs to him; while Cebe claims to be State proxy, ex officio. The law, it seems, is so indefinite on the subject that it serves as a basis for the claim of each, or both, or neither, just as one may desire to have it interpreted; and now that Coleman has gone to Stettin, there is no source whence a satisfactory solution of the imbroglio can be hopefully sought. The consequence is, that "our beloved" has appointed his proxy and Directors for the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, and they have gone to the meeting of Stockholders at Beaufort, and Cebe, armed with his big stick and, what he considers, legal authority to act, has gone down, too, and the probability is, that there will be something of a clash between the parties. We have no doubt that Cebe is conscientious in this matter, as his application to the Legislature last winter to tell him what to do, clearly evinces. We have no doubt that this all-pay and no work position, in which he seems to have found himself placed, is making him ashamed of it; and he simply claims a "say," in the railroad meeting, in order that he may have some employment for the time which hangs so heavy on his hands, and to make some show of earning the large salary the State is paying him.

It would never do to leave the constitutionality and legality features of the question to the decision of the new Attorney General, for he would be almost sure to decide in favor of "dad;" and therefore, we see but one way to settle the difficulty besides fighting it out, and that is to leave it to the Supreme Court to settle, which latter course, we learn, is likely to be adopted.

In the meantime, we suggest that Coleman be written to and his opinion obtained, in order to a lucid decision of the vexed question

Parepa Rosa expects to rest during the summer at St. Catharines.

TRUCK FARMING—HOP RAISING.

HON. JOSIAH TURNER, JR.—Dear Sir:—The adaptation of the soil and climate of this State to the culture of the hop, is so widely known, that it has been often urged upon our people to embark in its cultivation. I doubt, if any of the States, possess superior, if equal ability to cultivate hops extensively and profitably, yet several of the Northern States having embarked so generally in this busin ss before us, I doubt whether it could be made very profitable to us, to engage largely in it. The market for hops is so variable and uncertain, more so perhaps than any other product, that it is hazardous to engage in it as a general article of produce. Indeed, this is equally true of the production of any one article, which is not a staple product and in demand in all the markets of the world.

To digress a moment from my object, I will say, that the rich harvest obtained by truck-farmers in New Jersey, Delaware, and New York, and in our more immediate neighborhood, near Norfolk, Virginia, has awakened an enthusiasm upon the subject in the Southern States, which I fear will prove disastrous in future. Eastern Virginia and North Carolina alone, if the people very generally embark in truck-farming, could supply the markets of the world if they were accessible with their products of early vegetables and fruits. The market value of all articles is controlled by an irreversible law of trade, i. e., the supply and demand. If, therefore, the rage for truck-farming spreads as it has done for the last five years, our products from that source will become so large and so cheap, that they must be abandoned. It is suicidal for any large number of our people to engage in the culture of any one or more articles which have not a staple value, and accessible to the world. The South found before the war, that even cotton could be produced so largely, that the price fell below the paying mark. I am told that Minnesota has embarked so largely in hop-raising, as to jeopard seriously the commercial value of hops. Indeed her planters are quaking already at the low price of that article. I must therefore insist upon it, as I have often done, that the only true and wise policy, is for every agriculturalist to exert himself to bring up his lands to the point when he can cultivate at a paying rate, every marketable article within his reach—never to rely upon the production of one marketable article only—but first seek to provide amply for home consumption every article he needs, and then he can afford to spend his strength and his means upon those articles of a staple character which are most in demand and will pay best.

But my only object in this article, was to bring to the notice of your readers a fact not generally known, and which may be valuable to that section of the State, bordering on the Upper Yadkin and its tributaries. Within a few days, Chief Justice Pearson presented me a package of fine hops, of an excellent quality and very large, which grew spontaneously on his farm in Yadkin county on the banks of the Yadkin River. He assured me that they grew in great abundance for twenty miles at least on the Yadkin, Fisher's and Mitchell's Rivers, above the Bean Shoals. It is only necessary that the undergrowth and weeds be kept down, in order to an abundant crop in the entire region designated.

I have taken some pains to ascertain the best mode of curing hops, of putting them in a marketable shape and their market value, which I gladly communicate for the benefit of the people residing in that section.

When the gathering season arrives, they should be taken carefully from the vines and put in bags, then spread them on large sheets or cloths for drying in the shade, from which they should not be taken until cured. By gathering them in baskets or changing them frequently, the seed and dust which are necessary to their value, escape or are lost. They should therefore be kept in the drying cloths and taken up in them to be removed. Drying in the hot sun is injurious, much of their substance escaping by evaporation and changing the color from a greenish yellow to a brown. I am told that those cured retaining the greenish yellow color are far preferable to those cured until they are brown. The package handed me by Judge Pearson was browned in curing, and though considered by experienced judges to be excellent, yet they would have been better, if cured greenish yellow. After they are cured, they should be packed in bags and then put in a tobacco or other press and packed as hard as possible. They are then ready for market.

I am assured by a dealer in this city, that any quantity of hops of the kind above alluded to and prepared as indicated, may be sold at remunerating prices here. Let the people of Yadkin make a trial of the hops in that region. The results of that experiment would enable them to determine, whether or not to cultivate hops as a market crop. Messrs. W. H. Jones & Co., Commission Merchants of this city, will take pleasure in attending to the sale of hops or any other article sent them.

WM. E. PELL.

DEATH OF A FORMER NAVAL OFFICER.—Commodore James W. Cook, formerly of the United States navy, and subsequently connected with the Confederate naval service, died at Portsmouth, Va., on Monday, in the 58th year of his age. The Virginian says:

Commodore Cook was a native of North Carolina, and at an early age entered the United States naval service, where he attracted the attention of the government by his marked ability, and at the commencement of the war had risen to the rank of lieutenant in the navy. When the Southern States seceded Lieutenant Cook resigned his position in the old navy and entered the Confederate navy, with the rank of captain. By his activity and bravery he soon rose to the rank of commander, and before the close of the war to that of commodore, for valuable services rendered the government while in command of the Albemarle. It was at the battle of Roanoke Island, while in command of the steamer Forrest, that Commodore Cook exhibited bravery unsurpassed in history. After the fall of the Island he retreated with his little steamer before the enemy's fleet to Elizabeth City. Here, like a lion brought to bay, he fought with desperation against overwhelming odds. His vessel was boarded, but he refused to surrender, and was wounded and forced to the deck, and even then refused to pull down the flag which he was willing to die for. His victors, astonished at his daring valor, refused to use their right of power upon him, and confined him to the deck, which was red with his blood and that of his men. At the close of the war he returned to Portsmouth, and no one would have recognized in the quiet, unobstrusive citizen the man who had carved his name high on the monument of fame. As a gentleman he was soft and refined in his manners, endearing himself with all who were thrown within the charm of his company.

The strike which has existed for some time among the brakemen of the First Division of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway for some time past has been settled, and the strikers have resumed work at the old rates.

THE NEW REGENT OF SPAIN.

Spain is once more a monarchy without crowned heads, the Constitutional Cortes having passed a decree establishing a regency under Marshall Serrano, on the duties of which he entered on Saturday. This is the third time within forty years past that the Spanish people have had a regent for their ruler. In October, 1832, Queen Christina was appointed regent during the indisposition of her infamous consort, Ferdinand VII, then near his end, and continued to act in that capacity till his death, in the following year, when she assumed the title of Governing Queen until her infant daughter, Isabella II., lately driven from the Spanish throne, should attain her majority. Queen in title, she was regent in reality, holding the throne for her daughter, whose claims to it against the pretensions of Don Carlos were established by the quadruple treaty of 1834. Victorious over the Carlists, after a terrible civil war, lasting for seven years, Christina was compelled by the revolutionary movement at Madrid in 1840 to abdicate, and leave the Kingdom, her downfall being followed by the appointment of the celebrated General Espartero, Duke of Victory, to power, as regent, during the minority of the young Queen. Espartero held power for a little over two years, at the expiration of which time he was himself overthrown by a revolution, immediately after which event, the nation having had enough of regency, the young Queen, although only thirteen years of age, was declared by the Cortes to be of age. The history of her reign is well known. She, in her turn, has been driven out of Spain, and in default of an eligible candidate for the Spanish throne, a regency has once more been established.

Francisco Serrano, the new Regent, is one of those many soldiers of fortune in Spain who owe their fame and rank to the devotion with which they attached themselves to the cause of Christina, and the courage with which they fought during the war of independence. Like many others of his class he was literally rewarded by the Queen Mother, and at the period of her overthrow, in 1841, he already held high rank in the military service of his country. The Queen's abdication and exile did not long retard his advancement, for he took a prominent part in the successful movement against the Regent Espartero, and immediately on the restoration of Christina he joined Narvaez in his scheme to combat and destroy the influence of the Minister Olozaga. He played his cards with so much skill that he continued steadily to rise at Court, gaining such great influence over the mind of the young Queen that, in 1846, some time after her marriage, a very serious difference occurred between her and the King consort, arising out of the latter's jealousy of General Serrano. This domestic difficulty was indeed a matter of public scandal at the time. An attempt was made shortly after by the Duke de Sotomayer to ruin Serrano politically, but it recoiled on that Minister's own head, Serrano succeeding in overthrowing the Ministry of which the Duke was chief. Popular opinion, however, proved more powerful than royal favor, and Serrano subsequently fell with the Ministry of the Salmanca, with whose fortunes he had identified himself.

Up to this time the lucky favorite had been a reactionary in politics, but he now became a Liberal; and he has ever since been identified with what is known in Spain as the Liberal Union party. He was again in 1854 into exile for having taken part in the Saragossa outbreak; but the revolution of July in that year opened the way for his return to Spain, and he became a warm supporter of the O'Donnell-Esparterto coalition. He played a prominent part in the coup d' etat of July, 1856, it being principally through his instrumentality that the insurrection in Madrid was subdued, and O'Donnell enabled to seize power as dictator. For this service he was sent as Embassador to Paris; but the downfall of O'Donnell shortly after led to his recall. In 1865 he was appointed by the new O'Donnel Cabinet, Captain General of Madrid.—For many years he has had a seat in the Senate, where he has distinguished himself by a uniform and vigorous opposition to the reactionary policy of the old school of Spanish statesmen, and by his hearty support of all liberal measures. He has taken a quiet but influential part in this last revolution, and he owes his elevation to power as regent to the character he has won of late years for prudence and moderation, joined to liberal and enlightened views. Serrano is about 70 years of age, having been born at the end of the last century.—N. Y. Tribune.

GENERAL M'MAHON.

The Department of State has received dispatches from Gen. McMahon up to April 21, at which time he was well. His relations with Lopez are so cordial and friendly that, after the great defeat of the Paraguayans, he was entrusted with the care of his family. There has been no attempt by Lopez to interfere with his free communication with this government. Whatever impediments existed are attributable to the course of the allies, who for a long time refused to send out a flag of truce with dispatches for him, and who fired upon the flag of truce sent by the Paraguayans with Gen. McMahon's dispatches.

NEWSPAPER CONSOLIDATION.

The following announcement was issued to night from the National Intelligencer office:

"Temporary arrangements have been made to merge the National Intelligencer with the Washington Express. The necessary preparations for the separate publication of these newspapers in morning and evening editions are in process of perfection. The immediate cause of this change is referable to a strike among the printers on the Intelligencer, which the proprietors of the paper were unable to arrange."

It is said that a stock company, with a considerable capital, is now forming to carry on the Intelligencer in connection with the Express, and that a meeting of prominent and wealthy citizens of Washington has been called for Saturday evening next to accomplish this purpose.

ELECTIONS IN MISSISSIPPI AND TEXAS.

President Grant will on the 10th of July, after the Virginia election, order an election in Mississippi to take place September 15, and an election in Texas the last of September or the first of October.—Baltimore Sun, June 25th.

A SHOWER OF SHELLS.—The Delaware, Pa., Republican of the 15th says:

"On Saturday afternoon last, about 3 o'clock, a shower of shells, accompanied by large drops of rain, fell in this vicinity.—For an hour previous to the storm a heavy black cloud in the west, which spread rapidly in all directions, betokening a thunder storm of unusual violence. At half past 2 o'clock a high wind prevailed, which subsided as the rain commenced to fall in large drops, accompanied by what we and others in this office supposed to be hail, but which proved, on examination, to be small shell resembling the shell-fish known as the round clam. We have a number of these minute shells now in our possession, gathered by a lady during the storm, which are open to the inspection of the curious or those who are doubtful on the subject."

A member of the Cincinnati police, Lieutenant Saindler, has fallen heir to a $150,000 estate in Wittemberg, Germany.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continued till taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

SOMETHING NEW.—We learn that J. M. Blair, Esq., the prince of landlords, has leased the newly re built and re arranged House, known as the old Union Hotel, and expects to furnish it in the best modern style, and have it ready for the accommodation of the travelling public by October next.

THE communication of our Franklin correspondent, on the late Louisburg nominating Convention, will appear on Monday. It is rich.

A MEETING composed of the Conservative Constitutional Union men of this city, will be held at the Court House on Tuesday night the 29th, at which time delegates will be appointed from the various Districts of Wake county, to attend a Senatorial District Convention, at Franklinton, to nominate a candidate to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Richard I. Wynne, Esq. Let there be a grand rally.

THANKS.—We return our thanks for large clubs of new subscribers at Madison and Lenox Castle Post Offices, and for smaller clubs at other points. "Roll on the ball friends," as Holden used to say in Know Nothing days, "hold up our hands, that we may battle valiantly and successfully against the secret oath-bound organizations that threaten to sap the very foundations of our liberty."

MAHLER is also having a brick pavem nt put down in front of his jewelry establishment on Fayetteville Street.

NEW CEMETERY ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the subscribers to the Stock of this Association will be held on Wednesday the 7th of July, at half past 5 o'clock at the office of Messrs. W. H. Jones & Co., to complete their organization and to consider the acceptance or rejection of the charter granted by the last General Assembly.

We learn that nearly $4,000 has been subscribed to the stock and that the committee are negotiating for the purchase of a beautiful tract of some twenty-five acres near the city, possessing all the requisites for a picturesque burial ground.

The books of subscription are still kept open at the State National Bank, and will continue so until the 6th of July next.

Of course the share-holders will be entitled to choice of lots; and we advise all who desire to avail themselves of this privilege to call and put down their names.—A few hundred dollars more is all that is needed to secure the eligible location before spoken of, and we hope our citizens will not let the scheme fail for the want of so small a sum. The subscriptions are more in the nature of loans than others ise, as it is expected that the sale of lots will repay the original purchase money. As soon as the land is purchased it will be enclosed with a substantial fence, laid off, and lots offered for sale.

JAIL FARE.—We have received a note from a gentleman, stating that the prisoners confined in the jail here, are not cared for as the law requires. To use the language of the writer, "the fare is raw beef, and water but once a-day." We know nothing of the facts in the case, and allude to it simply to call attention of those concerned to the subject. If there be foundation for the statement, it certainly deserves the severest denunciations.

WHERE IS THE MONEY?—Passamaquoddy Ashley, who is at the head of our glorious State educational machinery, has recently had his iron safe removed from the room below, in the Capitol, to the room on the third floor, formerly occupied by the State Geologist, and more recently set apart for the occupation of the Supreme Court, but which they couldn't occupy. It cost some hundreds of dollars, we suppose, to get it up there, and now that it is there, we would like to know what use he has for it. A common office desk would have served the purpose just as well, and the expense and damage to the stone steps might have been avoided. But what does Cape Cod Ashley care for the expense? The State will foot his bills, out of the taxes the people have to pay; he'll put his salary, with all the perquisites of his place, into his iron safe, perhaps, until no more squeezings can be had, and then he will pack his earnings in his carpet bag and cut out for Massachusetts, where he came from.

SUPREME COURT.—The Court met pursuant to adjournment; all the Justices present.

The following cases were argued :

University R. R. Company vs. William W. Holden, Governor, and David A. Jenkins, Treasurer.

Mandamus to compel the issue of Bonds to said Road, as provided by law.

Messrs. Haywood, Fowle and Badger for Plaintiff; Attorney General and Poe for Defendant.

The Contempt Rule was discharged as to Thomas B. Venable, he having filed an answer as required.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Court met pursuant to adjournment. Hon. G. W. Brooks presiding.

The disposition of cases upon the civil docket occupied the morning.

It is probable that the Court will adjourn this afternoon.

THE FOLLOWING sales of city property were made to day, by auction :

The lot and dwelling of the late James McKimmon, situated on Fayetteville street, to Wm. H. Bagley, for $7,200.

TWO acres, with small improvements, nearly opposite Governor Worth's residence, to Rev. J. Brinton Smith, for $550.

Seven acres adjoining the last, without improvement, to Rev. J. Brinton Smith, at $125 per acre.

One hundred and fifty acres in Swift Creek district, (R C) to B P. Williamson, for $1 per acre.

Twenty-five acres near the last, Wm. Grimes, Esq., at $1.50 per acre.

One share Chatham Railroad stock was sold, we believe, for five dollars and fifty cents.

MIND YOUR MAPS.—Some Route Agent on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad invriably carries Wilmington mail matter for Raleigh around by Weldon, thus delaying it a day. For instance, we get our Wilmington exchanges of Thursday 24th via R. & G. Railroad, on Friday evening, and the same exchanges of Friday, on the same evening via the N. C. Road from Goldsboro', an evidence that one Agent sent them wrong, and the other sent them right.

The noble army of blackberry women are coming up each morning into the city, from the four winds of heaven and the five thousand brier patches in this vicinity, with baskets, buckets and piggins of berries, and selling them at four or five cents a quart; thus placing blackberry dumplings in the reach of all. Bountiful nature makes an impartial distribution of her gifts. Sampson and Wayne revels in their "big blues," Wake and other counties in blackberries, and after a while Anson will be luxuriating in her "simmon crap."

QUESTION FOR A DEBATING SOCIETY.—Over a certain river extended a bridge—at one end of the bridge was a gallows, at the other a house where two magistrates resided. Every person crossing the bridge had to state his business and make oath to it before the magistrates; if he swore falsely he was hanged on the gallows, if truly, he went free. A man came and stated that his sole business in crossing the bridge was to be hanged; that, and nothing else, and swore to it. Now, if they let the man go free, he had sworn to a lie, and must be hanged; and if they hanged him, he had sworn to the truth and ought not to have been hung. What was the proper decision for the magistrates to make?"

We get the above from an inmate of the Insane Aylum; whether it be old or new we know not; but, leave it to the reader to find a solution.

THE SCHOONER NELLIE TARBOX, from Rockport Me., which has been laying in harbor below for some weeks past with her cargo of lime on fire, arrived up in the city yesterday. The cargo has been slowly burning, though the air has been carefully excluded, and the schooner has established a greater claim to the name of Limbox than Tarbox. We hear that a curious method has been adopted to ascertain the continuance of the fire from time to time. A man has been detailed for the peculiar duty and he removes a plug in the hole in the deck prepared for the purpose, runs his finger down through the hole, and if it burns, as it always does, the cargo is reported still on fire.—Wil. Journal.

THE MASONIC CELEBRATION of St. John's Day, (Thursday 24th inst.,) at Franklinton, was a grand affair. We learn from one who was present that there were one hundred and thirty of the fraternity in procession, marshaled by W. B. Bullock, Jr., assisted by B. J. Blackley. The ceremonies were presided over by M. W. Robert, W. Best, P. G. M., of this city.

Addresses were delivered by Rev. P. J. Caraway, of the N. C. Conference, and Prof. Wm. Royall, of Wake Forest College.

After the addresses the members of the order, together with the large concourse of citizens, numbering some fifteen hundred, including a large number of ladies, were invited to a sumptuously furnished repast, of which all partook, and for all there was enough.

The festivities of the day were highly enjoyed by all present, and no incident or accident occurred to mar its pleasures.

Charles Dickens is obliged to perform all the editorial work of All the Year Round, his associate editor, Mr. Willis, being completely broken down in health.

The Committee of the Cincinnati Common Council on the 4th of July yesterday invited policemen, military companies, all civic organizations, United States, State, county, and city officials to join in procession, and ordered 300 guns to be fired.

Mr. Gladstone is about to make a peer of Colonel Greville Nugent, and Irish landowner and a strong adherent of Mr. Gladstone's policy. He is descended from a younger branch of the Earl of Warkick's family, is forty-eight years of age, and has sat in Parliament for Longford county ever since 1852.

A petition, signed by fifty colored people has been presented to the New Haven, Conn., board of education, asking that their children have equal privileges with the whites in the public schools. The petition was referred to the school committee.

POPULATION OF GREAT BRITAIN.—The registrar general of England estimates the population of the United Kingdom to the middle in the year 1869 at 31,915,234; or, excluding the army, navy and merchant seamen aboard, and reckoning only the persons actually in the United Kingdom, 30,-621,431—namely, 21,869 607 in England and Wales 3 205,481 in Scotland, and 5,-546,343 in Ireland. This is an increase of 240,644 as compared with the numbers in the United Kingdom in the middle of 1858—namely, an increase of 220,230 in England, 17,356 in Scotland, 3,058 in Ireland.

REGISTERING LUNATICS.—Five inmates (negroes) of Howard's Grove Lunatic Asylum were taken to Henrico County court house and registered by the Wells party.—Afterwards, upon proper representation of the Conservatives, they were stricken from the list.

READ WHAT THE

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES

SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIHU WASHBURN.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, JAN. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

THE GOLDEN SIDE.

There is many a rose in the road of life,
If we would only stop to take it;
And many a tone from the better land,
If the querulous heart would make it;
To the sunny soul that is full of hope,
And whose beautiful trust ne'er faileth,
The grass is green and the flowers ar bright,
Though the winter storm prevaileth.

Better to hope, though the clouds hang low,
And to keep the eyes still lifted;
For the sunset bine sky will still peep through,
When the ominous clouds are rifted.
There was never a night without a day,
Or an evening without a morning;
And the darkest hour, as the proverb goes,
Is the hour before the dawning.

There is many a gem in the path of life,
Which we pass in our idle pleasure,
That is richer far than the jewried crown,
Or the miser's hoarded treasure;
It may be the love of a little child,
Or a mother's prayer to Heaven,
Or only a beggar's grateful thanks
For a cup of water given.

Better to weave in the web of life
A bright and golden filling,
And to do God's will with a ready heart,
And hands that are ready willing,
Than soap, the delicate, minute threads
Of our various gives asunder,
And then blame Heaven for the tangled ends,
And sit and grieve and wonder.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looms into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL-CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,550.00
Total Premiums,	350,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892
By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 691
" New England Mutual, 343
" Phœnix Mutual, 336
" Massachusetts Mutual, 312
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.
In its 19th year, 1,360 "
And in its 20th year, 2,813 "
this latter being 690 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

CAPITAL OF THE STATE.

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and cleansing the soil WITHOUT LABOR, or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.
